

Executive Director /Senior Director of Medicinal Chemistry

Qualifications:

- An accomplished and innovative individual with a Ph.D. degree in Organic or Medicinal Chemistry along with 5+ years of relevant industrial experience,
- Demonstrable leadership and team building skills,
- Ability to multi-task and handle multiple facets of complex therapeutic programs, problem solving (scientific and managerial), and exceptional communication skill sets (verbal and written) and friendly personality to promote an open-team oriented environment,
- An outstanding record of patents, publications in medicinal and related-chemistry journals, track record of drug candidate progression (nomination, IND, etc) and familiarity with GPCR or kinase, protease or ion channel targets is required.

Responsibilities:

- Spearheading partner programs and collaboration in multiple medicinal chemistry lead optimization programs
- Supervisory responsibilities for medicinal chemistry personnel and multiple programs on behalf of partner collaborations including the preparation of project reports and conducting tele- and video-conferences with collaborators
- Oversight and accountability of partner programs in medicinal chemistry including timeline management, program advancement, milestone achievement, and partner interactions, insuring close collaboration, interactions, and integration with relevant internal and external functional areas (e.g. DMPK-ADMET, biology)
- Insuring appropriate IP protection on behalf of partners
- Involvement in departmental strategic planning
- Serving as mentor and educator to subordinates as well as promoting full career development potential